SECOND CHURCH MEETING. Action to Be Taken on Calling a Pastor Next Week.

Before the regular church prayer meeting at the Second Congregational church on Thursday evening a busi-ness meeting was called to hear a re-port from the committee on pulpit supply. E. A. Prentice, senior deacon, presided and the report of the committee was presented by its chairman, Henry D. Johnson.

This was given with the idea of ascertaining whether the church wanted the committee to being any more can.

certaining whether the church wanted the committee to bring any more candidates here for the pulpit vacancy, now that four had been heard. The committee reported on the four pastors who have preached before the church since Dr. L. L. West departed for his new pastorate at Everett Wash. The four candidates have been Rev. Herbert J. Wyckoff of New Haven, Rev. Henry H. Morse of Danbury, Rev. William G. Lathrop of Shelton and Rev. Elliott F. Talmadge of Wauregan.

On motion it was voted to call a meeting for definite action on the choice of a pastor next Thursday even-It was also announced that Rev. El-
